

Engineering Process Technician

Job type: Full-time, Day shift

Education: Associates Degree or equivalent

Salary: Negotiable based upon experience + competitive benefits

Experience: Minimum 3 Years

Peaker Services, Inc. is searching for an engineering process technician, who coordinates the flow of work throughout multiple projects through a design and commercial processes. Some of the responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Assists ESG Manager, Application Engineers, Engineering Technicians, providing engineering process level services.
- Implement and refine processes to meet ISO and AAR quality requirements for engineering design and development.
- Facilitates the flow of work and materials within the team in accordance to project schedules.
- Coordinates engineering problem solving forms, improvement forms, warranty resolutions, project documentation, reports, and design reviews in an accurate and efficient manner.
- Prepares project cost and work in process reports using material cost data, labor usage reports, and expenses.
- Determines process needs and communicates needs with PSI employees, engineers, vendors, and customers.
- Compiles reports on progress of projects, costs, and purchase orders.
- Purchases project materials.

Desired Qualifications:

- Demonstrates strong attention to detail and process methods compliance
- Demonstrates the ability to work collaboratively in a team
- Willing to learn, read, interpret, and work from mechanical, electrical blueprints/schematics, and service accounting systems
- Familiarity with industrial controls for large high horsepower engines and turbines
- Proficiency with computers and MS office
- Customer service experience
- Product knowledge (industrial controls)
- Willing to work additional hours if needed

Benefits:

- Excellent compensation based on experience level
- BCBS medical, vision, and dental insurance
- Vacation, personal, and sick pay
- 401K after first month, employer contributions after 1 year
- ESOP involvement after 1 year of service
- Company cell phone plan
- Tuition reimbursement

Peaker Services, Inc. modernizes and services industrial engines, turbines, and compressors in power, marine, industrial, and rail applications. Through a systems approach we digitize and mechanically modify, repair, and overhaul your equipment to optimize efficiency and performance, simplify operation and maintenance, and increase reliability and safety.